

Consent information

Thank you for taking part in Global Voices 2025. Please read the information below and confirm your consent using the checkbox provided in the submission form.

By submitting my photo and quote, I agree to the following:

1. I confirm that the photograph, video and/or quote I am submitting are my own, or that I have permission to share them.
2. I give permission for my submission to be:
 - o Featured in physical displays at the European Respiratory Society (ERS) Congress 2025
 - o Included in digital communications, including the European Lung Foundation (ELF) website, ERS Congress Channel and their respective social media channels
 - o Used in future publications, including summaries of the project or related scientific and advocacy work
 - o Reproduced for research, education, advocacy and other non-commercial purposes in the future
3. I understand that my name, location and quote may be published publicly with the photo, unless submitted anonymously.

ELF and ERS will only collect and store personal data necessary to deliver this project and communicate with you about it. Learn more about how we process and protect your personal information in the ELF privacy policy.

You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time by contacting info@europeanlung.org
